

2nd Quarter 2012

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS REPORT

KYW-TV, PHILADELPHIA, PENNSYLVANIA

CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

CERTIFICATION

On behalf of KYW-TV, I certify that a copy of the quarterly issues/programs report for KYW-TV, licensed to CBS Broadcasting, Inc. was placed in the station public inspection file on July 10, 2012.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Jon Hitchcock', is written over a horizontal line.

Jon Hitchcock
President/General Manager
KYW-TV
July 10, 2012

KYW-TV 3 – PHILADELPHIA, PA
QUARTERLY ISSUES PROGRAMS LIST
CBS BROADCASTING, INC.

April 1, 2012 – June 30, 2012

Attached are listings of broadcast segments, which in the station's judgment reflect KYW-TV3's most significant programming treatment of ascertained community issues.

PROGRAM INDEX

KYW-TV Eyewitness News – weekdays, 4:30am – 7:00am; 12noon – 12:30pm; 5:00pm – 6:00pm; 6:00 - 6:30pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; weekends, Saturday, 6:00am – 7:00am; 6:30pm – 7:00pm; 11:00pm – 11:30pm; and Sundays, 6:00am – 8:30am; 6:00pm – 6:30pm and 11:00pm – 11:30pm, regularly scheduled news broadcasts focusing on the latest current issues.

Eyewitness Newsmakers – A rotation of KYW-TV News Anchors provide an approximately 10-minute segment, including newsmaker interviews, which air during each Sunday morning newscast. Segments address current events on local and national fronts. The segments air in the 8:00am broadcast.

Talk Philly – weekdays, 12:00pm – 12:30pm; regularly scheduled lifestyle magazine program looking at a variety of topics that make the Philadelphia area so special. Hosted by Pat Ciarrocchi and Ukee Washington.

BUSINESS/ECONOMY/CONSUMER - Topics in this category include reports on a proposal to privatize the Pennsylvania Lottery and an overwhelming rejection to a plan to convert a popular dry shore town's dining establishments to B.Y.O.B. restaurants.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:17), Atlantic City's newest 2.4 billion dollar casino, Revel, has opened its doors for an 8 week preview; (:25), Six local businessmen purchased the Philadelphia Media Network for 55 million dollars, which makes the Philadelphia Inquirer and Daily News under new ownership for the fifth time in 6 years; 4/3—(:18), Governor Tom Corbett wants a private company to run the Pennsylvania Lottery, saying it would put the lottery in a stronger position to meet the demand for services from the State's growing elderly population; (:25), A King of Prussia based company is selling its assets due to the meat processor AFA Foods getting negative publicity over the ammonia treated beef filler used in their meat; (:21), According to the National Association of Colleges and Employers, the job market is brighter for this year's college grads, with the top fields being engineering, business, accounting, computer science, and economics; 4/4—(:24), New Jersey's Gaming Control Board says Pennsylvania's 11 casinos pulled more than 233.1 million dollars in gross slot machine revenue last month, which puts it ahead of Atlantic City and making it the second largest gambling market behind Las Vegas; (:20,) Allegiant Air will now charge passengers 35 dollars to carry their luggage on board the plane, the airline flies out of Lehigh Valley International Airport near Allentown; 4/11—(:15), The Camden County spring job fair is being held at the Collingswood Grand Ballroom on White Horse pike in Collingswood and over 100 employers will be in attendance; 4/12—(:18), The Labor Department says the number of Americans applying for unemployment benefits rose by 13 thousand last week to a total of 380 thousand; 4/16—(:19), Although taxes are usually do on April 15th, this year it fell on Emancipation Day and the government is allowing people to file their 2011 Federal Tax returns on the 16th; 4/17—(:22), The Philadelphia Inquirer won a Public Service Pulitzer prize for the seven part series titled "Assault on Learning" which examined violence in Philadelphia public schools; 4/19—(:28), Delta Airlines has put in a bid to buy the Conoco-Phillips Refinery in Trainer, Delaware County, Delta would use the plant to make jet fuel; (:31), The Federal Housing Finance Agency is taking preventative measures to ensure many homes are kept from foreclosure, they laid out rules that require lenders to review and respond to short sale requests within 30 days, this would save banks tens of thousands of dollars in lost property value; 4/23—(:13), The Philadelphia Parking Authority voted to add a $1.20 surcharge to fares beginning May 1st, this will help cab owners cover the rising cost of gas; 4/24—(:26), The State of New Jersey will soon require the sellers of gift cards to get zip codes from buyers, if gift cards remain unused for over 2 years, owners of the cards will then be able to file claims to get their money back; 4/25—(:17), Opportunities for college grads who are floundering in the job market had the chance to show their worth at the 'Free Library of Philadelphia', which hosted a big job fair today; 4/26—(:12), A small newsstand in The Gallery Mall sold the winning Powerball ticket for the largest jackpot in Pennsylvania Lottery history and the 48 winners who pooled their money were all SEPTA employees; 4/27—(:22), A new report on beer prices at ballparks show Philadelphia has the second most expensive beer in the major leagues, selling for $7.75 at Citizens Bank Park; 4/30—(:29), Natural gas company Energy Transfer Partners is buying Sunoco in a deal valued at more than $5 Billion, however Sunoco will maintain its headquarters in Philadelphia; 5/3—(:06), Spirit Airlines says that in the beginning of November it will raise the prices of some carry-on bags to as much as $100; 5/8—(:22), Voters in Ocean City, New Jersey have overwhelmingly rejected B.Y.O.B in restaurants, many argue it would destroy the family friendly atmosphere Ocean City has worked hard to build; 5/18—(:16), Facebook goes public today, the company will be worth $104 billion, more than McDonalds and Walt Disney; 5/28—(:11), Unemployment rates continue to remain shockingly high for veterans coming back from Iraq and Afghanistan; 6/19—(:21), The Consumer Financial Protection Bureau launches an online complaint database for credit cards, the cards banks and how the banks handled the public's complaints; 6/25—(:07), The former Conoco-Phillips Refinery in Trainer, Delaware County restarted operations after being idle for nine months.

CRIME—Topics in this category include reports on deadly gunfire on one of Philadelphia's busiest roadways I-76 and widespread tire slashing incidents in various parts of Philadelphia and surrounding tri-state area suburbs.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:12) More car vandalisms have taken place overnight but this time the attacks were in Claymont, Delaware where several people woke up to find their tires slashed overnight; 4/2—(:15) Vandals in Northeast Philadelphia slashed the tires of two cars on Decatur Street in Holmesburg; 4/3—(:35), Philadelphia police have launched an investigation into a police chase that ended with the assailant crashing into another car, killing a man and injuring his wife and child; (:24), For the third time, vandals have spray painted an area around the campaign headquarters of Damon K. Roberts and police are looking for suspects; (:15), Burglars have hit more than 60 homes and cars in Evesham Township, Burlington County; (:24), A Northeast Philadelphia resident has been behind bars since Thursday after TSA screeners at the Philadelphia airport spotted firecrackers and a fuse in his backpack; 4/4—(:16), A group of teens in Delaware County beat up a defenseless man, leaving him with facial injuries, blurred vision, broken bones, and a punctured lung; (:24), Authorities in Delaware County are on the lookout for a suspect who put a device on an ATM that steals credit card information from people using the machine; 4/5—(:25), A pair of robbers attacked a parking attendant with a brick on 13th and Locust, Philadelphia Police are still trying to identify the suspects via surveillance video; (:27), Jerry Sandusky's lawyer withdraws his motions to have child sex abuse charges thrown out, Sandusky appeared in court to dismiss the defense's motions; 4/6—(:17) Two people are dead after being shot inside a bar in West Philadelphia on 52nd and Market Streets, there is no word on the motive and the gunman remains at large; (:21), Investigators are looking for a suspect caught on surveillance video robbing a Citizens Bank branch located on Rising Sun Avenue, the suspect remains at large; 4/9—(:10) Deadly gunfire on one of Philadelphia's busiest roadways the Schuylkill Expressway, where a 29 year old man was shot and killed; 4/12—(:22) Philadelphia Police are investigating a homicide in Kensington, the victim was shot in the chest and head and police are also trying to determine whether or not the victim was attempting to break into cars at the time of the shooting; (:22), Nineteen cars in Nicetown had their tires slashed on five different blocks, authorities don't know if the attack is connected to several previous tire-slashings that started last year in Mayfair; 4/14—(:19), Philadelphia Police are investigating a sexual assault that reportedly happened in broad daylight at a Dunkin' Donuts located in the 1500 Spring Garden Street building; 4/16—(:19), A man was arrested after stealing nearly 60 pairs of underwear from laundry machines at apartment complexes since last November; 4/17—(:20), Authorities in New Jersey arrested over two dozen people, including one woman for distributing and possession of child pornography; (:21), State officials say they have busted an international car theft ring operating out of Philadelphia; 4/17—(:21), Delaware State Police are looking for vandals who targeted a Wilmington School, maintenance workers found dozens of shattered windows and damaged doors upon arrival Monday morning; 4/18—(:26), Police are looking for three suspects in a violent home invasion in the Bustletown section of Northeast Philadelphia; (:24), Surveillance video captures a violent smash and grab robbery inside the King of Prussia Mall as five masked gun-men burst into the Tourneau store Friday evening stealing watches; (:21), Authorities in Newtown Township, Bucks County are searching for a suspect in two attempted lurings, he is said to be white, middle aged with silver hair and a moustache; 4/23—(:20), The Evesham Police need help catching two suspects wanted for shoplifting at a Victoria's Secret store, the men are seen on surveillance video stealing bras from the store in Marlton, New Jersey; 4/25—(:21), Police are warning homeowners in Northeast Philadelphia to be on guard against a burglary spree, the suspects attempted three break-ins surrounding Bustleton and Rhawnhurst Monday night; 4/26—(:42), Dave Toledo is accused of slashing tires of more than 90 cars in Mayfair, police are urging neighbors to not retaliate and for justice to take its natural course; (:18), Philadelphia Police are searching for two men responsible for stabbing a pair of security guards at Home Depot on Delaware Avenue after the suspects tried to steal copper wire from the store; 5/1—(:21), Police are looking to catch one of Philadelphia's most vicious serial criminals The Fairmount Park Rapist, he first struck 9 years ago today yet he still remains on the loose; 5/10—(:22), Police, ATF agents and bomb squad technicians detonated three suspicious devices believed to be bomb threats, it happened on the 1800 block of Saddle Drive in Warrington; 5/14—(:31), 31-year-old kindergarten teacher Scott Gibson is under arrest after being caught attempting to meet a 13-year old girl online for sex, he later found that the person he was talking to was an undercover detective; 5/16—(:21), A swim coach by the name of Kenneth Fuller is charged with having sex with a student on his team, the school is in Chester County, Fuller faces several charges and the high school has removed him from his job; 5/21—(:19), Local cab driver Leonard Lavender is arrested for allegedly selling drugs to students at Villanova University, he has been charged with possession and intent to distribute; 5/22—(:23), Philadelphia Police say they've busted the first illegal internet gambling operation in the city, the operation occurred at 24th and Vare Avenue, 35 computers were later confiscated by police; (:19), Police are searching for the suspects responsible for setting a dog on fire in Fairmount Park, authorities say the Pit-bull was wrapped in a blanket and stuffed in a trash bag; 5/30—

(:21), Authorities bust a multi-million dollar drug ring in Philadelphia, 17 people were arrested in a scheme to traffic cocaine, 28 kilos worth three million dollars were seized; 6/8—(:23), A Bucks County woman is accused of stealing thousands from her neighbor after the neighbor was admitted to a nursing home; 6/15—(:23), A TSA training instructor at the Philadelphia International Airport was found to have accepted payment from security officers in exchange for passing grades on exams, many TSA personnel have been fired; 6/22—(:11), Jerry Sandusky was convicted on 45 of 48 child sex abuse counts, sending him to prison for the rest of his life; 6/25—(:16), An off-duty state trooper kills a 21-year-old woman while driving drunk, he was on his way home from a golf outing in honor of a girl killed by a drunk driver; 6/28—(:18), A SEPTA bus driver is recovering after a passenger tried to choke him on the route 22 bus in Old City; 6/29—(:12), A church leader at a Delaware County house of worship is under arrest for charges of child molestation.

CULTURE – Topics in this category include reports on the opening of the Barnes Foundation and plans for a 9/11 Memorial in Franklin Square.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:26), Pastry Chefs in the area competed in a wedding cake competition called Let them Eat Cake, all proceeds benefited the charity City of Hope, a leading research and treatment center for cancer, diabetes and other life threatening illnesses; 4/3—(:19), A 61-year old landmark of the Virgin Mary is back on the rooftop of the Lourdes Medical Center overlooking the Camden skyline, it had to be taken down after it suffered structural damage from a 5.8 magnitude earthquake last summer; 4/4—(:17), Queen Elizabeth's youngest son, Prince Edward, will be coming to Philadelphia later this month, he will meet students at Girard College as well as plant a tree in honor of his Mother's 60th year as Queen; 4/12—(:15), Philadelphia has strong ties to the Titanic, many of the ship's most prominent passengers were from Philadelphia, they are buried in the city's Laurel Hill Cemetery; 4/17—(:27), Former British Prime Minister Tony Blair is in Philadelphia tonight for a special honor, he was presented with an International Statesman Award as he was a force toward creating long-term solutions to some of the world's most complex challenges; 4/18—(:22), Member's of the area's Irish community joined together tonight at Finnegan's Wake in Northern Liberties for the Philadelphia St. Patrick's Day Parade Award Ceremony; 4/19—(:26), Young performers commemorate Holocaust Remembrance Day in Philadelphia, they made their debut at the National Museum of American Jewish History; 4/26—(:21), The 2012 Franklin Institute Awards were celebrated on the Ben Franklin Parkway in Philadelphia, for the 188th year the ceremony recognized and celebrated the world's most innovative scientists; 4/30—(:20), A flash mob occurred at Philadelphia's Suburban Station, a cast of more than 70 singers and dancers broke into a spontaneous performance of Seasons of Love inspired by the Broadway hit musical Rent; 5/2—(:21), Hollywood movie stars Colin Farrell and Terence Howard were in center city Philadelphia today on the set of their upcoming movie Dead Man Down; 5/6—(:27), A new exhibit at the Penn Museum called Maya 2012 is exploring the fascination with 2012 end of world predictions, a ribbon was cut and President Lobo of Honduras was on hand for the event; 5/10—(:26), The 5th Annual Utley All-Star Animals casino night hosted by Philadelphia Phillies 2nd baseman Chase Utley was held at the Electric Factory, all money raised will go to the Pennsylvania SPCA; 5/13—(:06), Tens of thousands of supporters joined the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure today at the Philadelphia Museum of Art; 5/14—(:15), Jay-Z is in Philadelphia today, he announced his plans for a two-day summer concert on the Ben Franklin Parkway this September; 5/14—(:23), Diplomats and public officials commemorate the 64th Anniversary of Israel's independence, the event was hosted in center city Philadelphia; 5/16—(:13), The Barnes Foundation opened on the Ben Franklin Parkway today; 5/23—(:19), Philadelphia will soon have a 9/11 Memorial in Franklin Square, artifacts for the future site are set to arrive from New York City, construction begins later this summer; 5/24—(:34), The Wildwoods have claimed top spot in New Jersey's Annual Best Beaches competition, the beach has won 4 times in 5 years, the contest is sponsored by the Sea Grant Consortium; 6/1—(:24), Philly Beer Week kicks off at the Independence Visitor Center, Mayor Nutter tapped the first keg, this marks the fifth year in a row making it the largest brew fest in the country; 6/4—(:27), Philadelphia born actor James Earl Jones is named the recipient of the Marian Anderson Award; 6/6—(:22), The North Philadelphia gym where Joe Frazier trained in now among America's most endangered historic places; 6/15—(:26), Supporters of the SS United States gather to celebrate the ship's 60th Anniversary, the ship is moored in South Philly; 6/16—(:09), Tim McGraw and Kenny Chesney brought their Brothers of the Sun tour to Lincoln Financial Field; 6/19—(:24), The downtown Camden library in New Jersey is renamed after assembly woman Nilsa Cruz-Perez; 6/21—(:22), The Privateer Lynx and HMS Bounty are docked outside the Seaport Museum for the weekend, you can tour the ships or even sign up for a cruise along the Delaware.

ENVIRONMENT – Topics in this category include reports on extensive brush fires in New Jersey and Philadelphia's air ranking as the 10th worst in the nation for pollution or soot.

Eyewitness News: 4/5—(:10), A brush fire occurred in Ocean County, firefighters were on the scene after homes and a marina were threatened, fortunately there were no evacuations; 4/6—(:27), Fires scorched up to 400 acres near the Atlantic City Expressway in Winslow Township, no people or property were directly threatened by the fires and as of now it is 100% contained; 4/14—(:18), The Fifth Annual Philly Spring Cleanup day kicked off at the Kingsessing Recreation Center where thousands of volunteers spent their Saturday fanning out in the neighborhoods picking up trash, painting buildings, removing graffiti and beautifying the city; 4/20—(:28), Phillies fans wear green this weekend at the Second Annual E-Cycle Event in celebration of Earth Day, the event also allows fans the chance to recycle their used electronics for free; 4/25—(:25), A survey performed by the American Lung Association reports that Philadelphia air is the 10th worst in the nation when it comes to particle pollution or soot; 5/8—(:17), A 185-pound bear was found in a tree in Union, New Jersey, officials fired a dart at him as he ran towards homes, he is set to be released back into the wild; 5/10—(:25), Philadelphia

Mayor Michael Nutter announced a program to green up to 10 schoolyards and recreation centers starting this spring; 5/16—(:18), After a night of thunder, lightning and plenty of heavy rain, the Gulph Creek in Upper Merion ended up spilling over onto the roadway, which was closed until the water receded; 5/16—(:31), A lightning strike sparks an explosive fire at the Dow Chemical Plant in Bucks county, the lightning tanks hit 2 containers, each contained 250-thousand gallons of acrylic; 6/27—(:18), Dewey Beach has been named one of the Top 12 Cleanest Beaches in the United States; 6/30—(:50), Atlantic County is in a state of emergency after storms ripped down trees and power lines.

GOVERNMENT – Topics in this category include reports on the life and leadership lessons former Secretary of State Colin Powell learned during his military career and while serving four presidents and how the Pennsylvania Primary was a dry run for the state's new Voter ID Law.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:19), New Jersey will be the ninth state to require putting a star on driver's licenses indicating that they are compliant with the Department of Homeland Security standards for federal identification; 4/2—(:06), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie traveled to Israel and met with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu; 4/3—(:23), Three weeks before the Pennsylvania Primary, a new poll shows Rick Santorum remains Pennsylvania's favorite son, but Mitt Romney is closing the gap; 4/4—(:33), Pennsylvania is the next big prize in Campaign 2012, Mitt Romney is supposed to make a stop in Broomall, Delaware county this evening, Pennsylvania Primary is April 24th; (:18), Rick Santorum says he's not getting out of the race despite losing in all three primaries, Santorum is hoping to win his home state and regain some momentum; (:18), President Obama and the democrats are focusing on Pennsylvania with the re-election campaign and opened a new office in Philadelphia's Northern Liberties Neighborhood, it is Obama's 4th office in Philadelphia and his 14th in the state; 4/6—(:21), Rick Santorum's family asks for prayers and privacy as his youngest daughter Bella is back in hospital, Bella suffers from a rare genetic disorder called Trisomy 18 which causes medical complications that could be life threatening; 4/10—(:09), Former Pennsylvania Senator Rick Santorum suspends his presidential campaign, paving the way for Mitt Romney to face President Obama in the fall; 4/10—(:28), Tobacco companies and the FDA face a lawsuit against each other regarding warnings on cigarette packaging, the FDA wants to add larger graphic picture warnings on the product while tobacco companies believe that this violates their first amendment rights; 4/11—(:22), First Lady Michelle Obama and Doctor Jill Biden are visiting Philadelphia for a two-day tour touting the anniversary of their Joining Forces program supporting military families and ensuring nurses are prepared to meet the health needs of service members and veterans; 4/12—(:16), Newt Gingrich focuses on America's economy as he campaigns in Delaware, he says if current policies continue, future generations will be paying their parents and grandparents debt; (:26), Former President Bill Clinton came to Willow Grove, PA to lend his support to Democratic State Attorney General candidate Kathleen Kane; 4/13—(:23), The UN Security Council scheduled an emergency meeting today, as North Korea admits to launching a long range missile, they claim it was a peaceful mission to send a satellite into space, but the US and several nations are concerned the country is trying to develop a nuclear missile; (:17), New regulations have taken effect when it comes to feeding homeless people outdoors in Philadelphia, food providers are now required to have a permit, critics say a ban on outdoor feeding amounts to discrimination; 4/16—(:20), Mitt Romney made another stop in Philadelphia today, he's the featured speaker at the Tea Party Tax Day event at the Franklin Institute; 4/17—(:25), The newest member of the Kennedy family makes his public debut in Atlantic County, his name is Owen Patrick Kennedy, son of Patrick and Amy Kennedy; (:18), Mitt Romney spoke at the Lancaster County Republican dinner, he also earned the endorsement of Governor Corbett; 4/20—(:19), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie has signed a bill into law that toughens penalties for road rage, drivers can face up to 5 years and a $15,000 fine; 4/20—(:20), An App available to both iPhones and Androids will now allow users to contact Philadelphia City Hall immediately by reporting a problem in their neighborhood; 4/23—(:17), In Pennsylvania and Delaware, voters go to the polls tomorrow to choose their candidate in the Presidential Primary; 4/24—(:14), Mitt Romney wins the Pennsylvania and Delaware Primaries, and takes a giant step toward capturing the Republican nomination; 4/25—(:27), Former President George W. Bush comes to Bucks county as a keynote speaker at Plumstead Christian School's Annual Founders Forum; (:23), Republican Presidential candidate Newt Gingrich will officially drop out of the race next week, but will continue to support Mitt Romney; 5/1—(:24), New Jersey Governor Chris Christie says he is open to a discussion with Mitt Romney about a VP position; (:21), Occupy Philly is back on the streets, protestors are once again calling for economic justice, more arrests have been made due to disruptions in center city Philadelphia; (:06), President Obama makes a surprise visit to Afghanistan on the one year anniversary of Osama Bin Laden's death, he announces that the US combat role in Afghanistan is winding down; 5/2—(:22), Governor Chris Christie is calling on New Jersey lawmakers to okay his plan on cutting income tax by 10%; 5/3 – (:15), Pennsylvania Senator Pat Toomey is being mentioned as a possible running mate for likely Republican nominee Mitt Romney; 5/6—(:31), Five men who allegedly planned the September 11th Terrorist attacks faced a military judge at Guantanamo Bay for their second arraignment, each defendant faces the death penalty if convicted; 5/9—(:18), President Obama becomes the first president to support same-sex marriage; 5/14—(:25), An assembly committee in New Jersey has passed a measure banning anyone under the age of 18 from using tanning beds; 5/21—(:20), New Jersey lawmakers are set to consider a bill that would de-criminalize the possession of up to a half-ounce of marijuana; 5/23—(:12), Republican Presidential nominee Mitt Romney will be in Philadelphia tomorrow, stopping by the Universal Bluford Charter School for a morning speech; 5/24—(:20), The New Jersey Assembly votes on a measure to protect social media users from having to disclose their passwords to their school or employer; 5/25—(:16), Pennsylvania Senator Bob Casey is introducing legislation that would toughen penalties against companies that discriminate against veterans; (:13), The TSA is getting ready to expand a program designed to ease the screening process for elderly flyers; 5/29—(:19), President Obama awards the “Medal of Freedom” to honorees Bob Dylan, former secretary of state Madeline Albright, astronaut John Glenn and author Toni Morrison; 6/1—(:16), Philadelphia’s School Reform Commission has approved a new budget; 6/5—(:21), New Jersey voters go to the polls for their Primary, the November match up for Democrat Bob Menendez and Republican Joe Kyrillos is expected to become official; 6/6—(:23), First Lady Michelle Obama and Doctor Jill Biden visit the Constitution Center and the University of Pennsylvania announcing a program for military families, also encouraging voter registration; 6/7—(:20), Doctor Jill Biden visits the Free Library of Philadelphia and will read from her book, “Don’t Forget, God Bless Our Troops”; 6/8—(:18), President Obama will be in Philadelphia for a fundraiser at the Franklin Institute; 6/11—(:21), Pennsylvania lawmakers will vote on whether to privatize the state controlled liquor system, the change would allow distributors, grocery stores and taverns to sell a wider variety of alcohol; 6/14—(:30), Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter is losing support on his proposed plan to change the way Philadelphia collects property taxes, the new plan is called AVI which stands for Actual Value Initiative; 6/21—(:21), A bill to allow expert witnesses to testify for the prosecution in rape cases is on its way to governor Tom Corbett’s desk; 6/25—(:14), Attorney General Eric Holder joins Philadelphia Mayor Michael Nutter at City Hall; 6/29—(:20), Doctor William R. Hite will be the next superintendent of the Philadelphia School District.

Newsmakers: 4/1 – (11:00), Pennsylvania is a potential battleground in Campaign 2012. It's not just for the White House. It's also for the U. S. Senate. In Pennsylvania, Democrat Bob Casey is up for re-election. A shift in just a few seats in the Senate could shift the balance of power. Among the Republicans seeking to replace Casey – former Pennsylvania State Rep. Sam Rohrer; 4/8 – (11:30), It's been less than two years since Chris Coons campaigned for a U.S. Senate seat in one of the most-watched campaigns of 2010. Senator Coons, a Democrat, defeated Tea-Party Republican Christine O'Donnell, to fill the unexpired term of Vice President Joe Biden. Now, he's on the Budget, Foreign Relations, and the Judiciary Committees. Subjects include job training for veterans, job creation, the federal budget, and President Obama's Health Care Package as it undergoes arguments before the U. S. Supreme Court; 4/15 – (12:05), It's been a year and a half since scandal forced Carl Greene out as Executive Director of the Philadelphia Housing Authority. The PHA is under federal control while Executive Director Michael Kelly, an expert in turning around troubled housing agencies, makes the changes necessary to put it back into local control; 4/22 – (11:15), Voters get ready for primaries in Pennsylvania and Delaware. So what's on their minds? Political Analyst Dr. William Rosenberg, a political scientist at Drexel University, and the author of two books dealing with the presidential election process offers his insight; 4/29 – (10:00), The Pennsylvania Primary was a dry run for the state's new Voter ID Law. It requires Pennsylvanians to show a photo ID that meets state guidelines when they vote. Are enough voters ready for November? For some answers, we invited Zack Stalberg, the President and CEO of the Committee of Seventy, a watchdog group which fights for among other things fair elections and an efficient government; 5/6 – (10:30), Sen. Pat Toomey, (R) Pennsylvania discusses whether to raise the debt ceiling; 5/20 – (12:00), As a child, former Secretary of State Madeleine Albright fled her native Czechoslovakia as the Nazis tightened their grip on Europe. She was raised Catholic but didn't know about her Jewish background until years later. In her new book "Prague Winter," Albright chronicles the turmoil before, during and after World War Two not just through her life experiences but also from the perspective of a diplomat; 5/27 – (15:00), Former Secretary of State Colin Powell has learned plenty of life and leadership lessons during his military career and while serving four presidents. Now, he's put his experiences into his book, "It Worked for Me," which has just hit bookstores; 6/3 – (13:10), Is America a nation of wusses? Former Pennsylvania Governor Ed Rendell thinks so, and explains why in his new book, "A Nation of Wusses"; 6/10 – (10:00), The political stage is set in New Jersey following the June 5th Primary. Aside from the Presidency, the biggest race is for the U.S. Senate. All Congressional seats are also up for grabs. Political Analyst Rick Mroz, former chief counsel to Governor Chris Christie, offers his insight; 6/17 – (10:00), The race for Congress in New Jersey's 3rd District promises to generate a lot of attention. Two years ago, Republican Jon Runyan, a former offensive tackle with the Philadelphia Eagles, defeated freshman Democrat John Adler. This year, Shelley Adler is challenging Runyan for the seat once held by her late husband.

HEALTH—Topics in this category include reports on why outbreaks of head lice are more contagious during the spring season and a new study suggests calcium supplements given to women to prevent bone thinning may increase the risk of heart attack.

Eyewitness News: 4/2—(:21), Doctors at Fox Chase Cancer Center in Philadelphia found that patients with higher levels of the protein Survivin lived longer periods before pancreatic cancer returned, doctors hope the discovery will lead to more effective chemotherapy for patients; (:14), Skin cancer is on the rise for young adults, a new study from the Mayo Clinic found a dramatic increase of first time Melanoma in patients aged 18-39, especially among women as researchers blame the rise in use of outdoor tanning beds and childhood sunburns; (:22), New research suggests that long term use of any type of hormones to ease menopause symptoms can raise a woman's risk of breast cancer, doctors say women should use the lowest dose needed for the shortest time possible; 4/3—(:21), Researchers say baking soda neutralizes acids that produce tumors, however too much of it can damage the kidneys or the bladder; 4/4—(:18), Leading evidence suggests that caffeine and exercise may protect against skin cancers, mice were tested and experienced 62% fewer skin tumors from exposure to sunlight; (:20), Researchers followed thousands of women in China and found that eating certain vegetables could improve survival rates for breast cancer, vegetables examined included cabbage, cauliflower, broccoli and brussel-sprouts; 4/6—(:20) Not all patients with appendicitis need surgery, a new study finds antibiotics are a safe and viable alternative for people with uncomplicated appendicitis; (:16), A new study shows soy milk can help relieve hot flashes for menopausal women, researchers at the university of Delaware found two servings a day can reduce the number of hot flashes and make them less severe; 4/10—(:21), Outbreaks of head lice are more contagious during spring break, as it is a major time for head lice, partly because of the increase in the shared use of helmets for baseball, softball and biking, it is also a time when children are having more sleepovers, parents are advised to check their children's heads with use of a lice comb at least once a week; (:24), A new study suggests that patients who have dental X-rays at least once a year may double their risk of brain cancer, the American Dental Association recommends X-Rays about every two years; 4/11—(:08), New research shows people who smoke flavored cigarettes are two-times more likely to suffer a stroke than people who smoke non menthols; 4/12—(:17), New evidence suggests that poor sleep can increase the risk of diabetes and obesity, research done in Boston found that people who slept for less than 6 hours had a slower metabolism and an increase in their blood sugar levels; 4/13—(:17), A study at Purdue University found there's a compound in red wine and grapes that controls body fat, researchers hope findings will eventually lead to a method for controlling obesity; 4/17—(:18), A Penn State study found that new mothers with depression turn to their babies for emotional comfort, in turn keeping their babies up at night; 4/18—(:18), Brain scans may be able to predict who will become overweight, researchers at Dartmouth used brain imaging to analyze the brain activity of patients as they looked at pictures of food; (:18), Researchers at Harvard found that people who are optimistic and satisfied about their lives are less likely to suffer heart attacks or strokes; 4/23—(:21), New studies show that life expectancy for men improved more than life expectancy for women, some speculate that this is due to the fact that some doctors don't treat symptoms of heart disease as aggressively in women; 4/26—(:14), A new study found that those who eat blueberries and strawberries reduce their own risks of having memory problems, it also helps slow down aging of the brain; 4/27—(:22), British researchers found that using anti-depressants late in pregnancy is associated with premature birth and feeding problems; 5/1—(:28), A new study showed that individuals who got less than 7 hours of sleep had a greater risk of weighing more than those who got more than 8 hours of sleep; 5/2—(:25), Dentists are strongly recommending individuals who drink energy drinks to rinse out their mouths with water or chew sugar-free gum as the beverage is known to significantly damage tooth enamel, increasing the risk of cavities and decay; 5/7—(:20), A new study shows that parents who divorce when their kids are in preschool could put their kids at risk for behavior problems in the future; 5/10—(:17), Doctors say they're seeing an increase in throat cancer among seemingly healthy men, experts say the cause is the HPV virus; 5/15—(:16), Researchers at Stanford University found that more than 30% of adults are prone to sleepwalking, a study also found people who suffer from depression and anxiety are more likely to wander in their sleep; 5/16—(:22), California researchers claim too much high fructose corn syrup may be bad for your brain, rats who were fed the syrup had a hard time finding a way through a maze, overall effect on the brain is unclear; 5/18—(:20), Scientists found eating times may override the adverse effects of a high-fat diet, mice limited to eating during an eight-hour period were healthier than mice who ate non-restricted all day long; 5/22—(:22), Yearly test for prostate cancer screening is no longer a requirement for men however many doctors disagree saying the benefits outweigh the risks; 5/24—(:19), A new study suggests calcium supplements given to women to prevent bone thinning may increase the risk of heart attack; 5/31—(:16), A new study of germs in the workplace finds men's offices have significantly more bacteria than women's, with the highest concentration of bacteria on chairs and phones; 6/1—(:15), Doctors say eating dark chocolate on a regular basis can help lower the risk of heart attack, dark chocolate has been proven to lower blood pressure and cholesterol; 6/11—(:21), Researchers say people who routinely sleep less than six hours a night are four times more likely to suffer from a stroke, experts recommend seven to nine hours of sleep a night; 6/13—(:29), Older women are now being encouraged not to take a Vitamin D supplement, it has little effect on broken bones and come with a slightly increased risk of getting kidney stones; 6/15—(:28), The American Red Cross is launching a new app that gives step-by-step instructions on how to handle common first aid situations; 6/20—(:21), The Environmental Working Group puts apples at the top for having the highest level of pesticide residue, celery came in second, federal health officials note the benefits of eating fruits and vegetables outweigh the risks of low level pesticide exposure; 6/22—(:16), Researchers have found a protein in the blood of pregnant women that can predict if they are likely to have a fetus with growth problems, 6/26—(:18), The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia has been named the world leader in operating on babies with life threatening defects before they are born.

MINORITY/ETHNIC – Topics in this category include reports on the African American Future Achievers Awards Celebration and the 20th Anniversary of Equality Forum the world's largest summit for the LGBT community.

Eyewitness News: 4/4—(:23), A special quilt was unveiled in Delaware honoring the legacy of Doctor Martin Luther King Junior; 5/3—(:16), The Equality Forum is underway in Philadelphia, it's the world's largest summit for the LGBT community, as it marks its 20th year running, many reflect on the struggle for gay rights past, present and future; 5/9—(:19), President Obama says he believes gay couples should be allowed to marry in interview with Good Morning America's Robin Roberts; 5/14—(:17), Haddon Township, New Jersey has been targeted by vandals who spray painted racial slurs and expletives on homes and vehicles, police are now searching for suspects; 5/17—(:13), According to new census numbers more than half of all the babies born belong to minority groups; 6/10—(:19), A celebration of African American culture takes over South Street for The 37th Annual Odunde Festival, the largest community based street fair in the country; 5/19—(:14), The 2012 Philadelphia Association of Black Journalists Awards ceremony was held in center city tonight; 5/23—(:19), The Hispanic Choice Awards is accepting nominations for its annual awards ceremony, you can nominate someone online, the event will take place in October at the Kimmel Center; 6/26—(:25), The 2012 Ronald McDonald House Charities African American Future Achievers Awards Celebration was held in Camden giving scholarships to eligible graduating seniors.

PUBLIC HEALTH & SAFETY – Topics in this category include reports on a rabies scare in South Jersey and a new law in effect that changes the way drivers and bicyclists interact on center city Philadelphia streets.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:13), The federal government is investigating reports on engine fires caused by the 2011 Chevrolet Cruze and the 2010 Jeep Wrangler, the National Highway Traffic Safety Administration says most of the fires started when the vehicles were moving; 4/4—(:21), A 15-year-old boy was chased down by two dogs on the 5900 block of Belvin Street in Philadelphia's Oxford Circle Neighborhood, biting him for several minutes and leaving him injured and recovering in hospital; (:22), A new law now in effect in Philadelphia changes the way drivers and bicyclists interact on the road, cars must now give bicyclists at least four feet on all sides when passing; 4/6—(:18), Odwalla is recalling its Odwalla Chocolate Protein Monster beverage, some who have peanut allergies have experienced severe allergic reactions after drinking it, the recall affects 12 and 32 ounce bottles with enjoy by dates prior to and including May 23rd 2012; (:21), Dry conditions have fueled fires near the Atlantic City Expressway in Winslow Township, Camden County, burning up to 375 acres of land so far; 4/10—(:20), Dry conditions are feeding the flames in both Pennsylvania and New Jersey, and dense woods are making it difficult for firefighters to get to the fire at the French Creek State Park in Berks County; (:22), Ford is recalling more than 140,000 Focus models because of the potential for a wiper-motor failure, which can cause the wiper to stop working, resulting in reduced visibility and increased risk of a crash; 4/15—(:11), Dole Foods is recalling 756 cases of bagged salad because they could be contaminated with salmonella, the bags were sold in 15 states including Pennsylvania; 4/18—(:18), In Allentown a large brush fire was contained after ten homes and two apartments were evacuated as they were within close proximity; 4/19—(:25), The Anti-Defamation league is objecting to a T-Shirt being sold at Urban Outfitters as it bears a symbol that resembles a yellow star Jews were forced to wear in Nazi Europe; (:19), A trash fire breaks out at a recycling center on Delaware Avenue at noon causing nearby businesses to evacuate; (:27), New Jersey officials are making it easier for residents to dispose of prescription medication before getting into the wrong hands, drop boxes have been established at police departments in Somerset County, Cherry Hill, Toms River and Lower Township; 4/21—(:11), Michelin is recalling more than 77,000 bus tires because of a defect that can cause them to lose air rapidly; 4/26—(:21), A boat burning occurred on the dock near Dave and Busters on Columbus Boulevard this morning, the owner was treated for smoke inhalation; 4/27—(:31), A SEPTA train on the Market-Frankford line broke down near Kensington and Castor, after passengers were removed from the train, two train cars suddenly began rolling off with the technicians inside, power was cut to the tracks because the brakes would not work; (:23), The Philadelphia City Council Committee has approved new rules for owners of vacant buildings which would require owners to use steel doors to seal up vacant properties; 4/30—(:16), A man fell three stories to his death after he was shocked by electrical wires at a construction site in the Fairmount section of Philadelphia; 5/1—(:19), 13 people were taken to area hospitals after a carbon monoxide leak in their Port Richmond homes on Buckius Street; 5/8—(:22), Chrysler is recalling 119,000 2011-2012 Chrysler 300 and Dodge Charger Sedans because of a potential problem with brakes, the automaker says a fuse can overheat, causing the brakes and electronic control system to malfunction; 5/16—(:19), PSE & G crews were called out to repair a broken gas main in Camden County this morning, a contractor doing concrete restoration hit a gas main on White Horse Pike near the I-295 overpass in Barrington, no injuries or evacuations; (:13), A water main break in Philadelphia's Manayunk neighborhood, caused the Main Street business district to be flooded, it took 90 minutes to shut off the leak; 5/18—(:21), Fumes prompted the evacuation of a school in South Philadelphia, officials traced the odor to the air conditioning system, one student was taken to the hospital with chest pains; (:18), A rabies scare is effective in South Jersey, and the culprit is an infected kitten; 5/21—(:10), Crews are now tearing down an anti-terrorism fence installed last year to protect the Great Egg Harbor Bridge, the bridge is the gateway from Atlantic County to Cape May County; 5/24—(:22), A lightning strike near Exton Square Mall knocks out power, sending shoppers home and leaving more than 500 homes without power, one home sustained minor damage from a fire; 5/25—(:21), Ultra condensed pod laundry detergents can be harmful to young children, who mistake the pods for candy, there have been several instances where children have swallowed the detergent and become ill; 5/28—(:24), The National Weather Service is issuing an excessive heat warning in parts of the Philadelphia area starting today, 5/29—(:21), The Delaware County courthouse is back open tonight after a bomb threat closed the building for three hours, police searched the courthouse with K-9 units but no bombs were found; 5/29—(:20), A 30-story high-rise in Philadelphia's Washington Square West neighborhood has been evacuated due to a pipe burst, causing major flooding; 6/4—(:22), Lawmakers in New Jersey have approved a measure increasing the penalties for those who talk or text while driving, the bill now heads to the full senate; 6/6—(:09), A fire tears through row homes in Chester County, leaving dozens homeless; 6/8—(:34), A second black bear sighting has people up in arms, the bear was spotted around backyards in Medford Township, Burlington County; 6/13—(:25), Underground wires overheat forcing people to evacuate their homes in Darby Borough, emergency responders noticed higher than normal levels of carbon monoxide and ordered evacuations, some SEPTA services were also suspended, no one was injured; 6/14—(:19), Honda is recalling 50,000 of its 2012 Civics, the car maker said that during assembly the installation of the drive shaft wasn't properly completed; (:21), Emergency crews are on the scene of a possible Hazmat situation at Lehigh Valley Hospital; 6/16—(:17), Several beaches on Long Beach Island in Ocean County are closed after syringes and other trash washed ashore, maintenance crews are working to clean up the nine miles of beaches; 6/18—(:20), The government has expanded an investigation into fires that can start in the doors of several Toyota models, 1.4 million cars and SUVs are under investigation, 160 fires have been reported but no formal recall has been issued; 6/25—(:27), A wolf-like species was spotted in Pennypack Park in Philadelphia and is causing much concern, the Pennsylvania Game Commission has been trying to catch the animal to no avail; 6/26—(:27), Several ambulances in Gloucester Township are taken out of service because of code violations.

RELIGION – Topics in the category include reports on an announcement by Pope Benedict XVI regarding his plans to come to Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families in 2015 and a verdict in the clergy child sex abuse trial in Philadelphia.

Eyewitness News: 4/1—(:21), Christians around the world are celebrating palm Sunday marking the start of Holy Week, Archbishop Charles Chaput blessed the palm and recounted the passion of the cross Jesus' journey to crucifixion; 4/2—(:19), Reverend Edward Avery faces up to five year behind bars for conspiracy and sexual assault of a ten-year old altar boy, he also has to register as a sex offender; 4/4—(:31) A former altar boy testifies sixteen years later that he was sexually abused by reverend James Brennan, he repeatedly broke down on the stand saying the abuse sent him into a downward spiral that led him to drugs and a life of crime; 4/6—(:20) Sundown marks the start of Passover, the Jewish holiday commemorates the emancipation of the Israelites from Slavery in Ancient Egypt; 4/8—(:11), Christians across the world celebrated Easter, the faithful gathered for Easter Sunday Mass at houses of worship all over Philadelphia; 4/15—(:10), Archbishop Charles Chaput announced today that a dozen parishes will merge this summer; 4/25—(:16), A pastor in Burlington County suffers a heart attack during Easter Sunday Service, his heart stopped but he was brought back to life by members of his congregation; 5/2—(:28), Up to 27 priests over the course of a year were placed on administrative leave by the Philadelphia Archdiocese for inappropriate behavior and sexual abuse; 5/4—(:30), After a yearlong investigation of 26 priests and their behavior with minors, the court was only able to resolve 8 cases, 3 men will be able to return to ministry while 5 men will no longer be able to practice as priests, one of the accused has died; 5/20—(:08), Two more clergymen in the Philadelphia Archdiocese, Monsignor George Mazzota and Monsignor Hugh Campbell, have been connected with the church sexual abuse scandal, both men have been deemed unsuitable for ministry; 5/24—(:27), Monsignor William Lynn takes the stand in his own defense in the clergy child sex abuse trial in Philadelphia, defense attorney Thomas Bergstrom questioned Lynn extensively about his authority in the clergy; 6/1—(:23), A verdict has not been reached on the 10th day of the priest child sex abuse trial in Philadelphia, Monsignor William Lynn is charged with endangering children and Father James Brennan is charged with attempting to rape a 14-year-old boy, both men deny the charges; 6/2—(:10), A catholic priest who was removed from the ministry over sex abuse allegations now holds a TSA job at the Philadelphia International Airport; 6/3—(:08) Pope Benedict XVI announces his plans to come to Philadelphia for the World Meeting of Families in 2015, this meeting takes place every three years; 6/23—(:34), The jury reaches a verdict for Monsignor Lynn, he was found guilty in the charge of endangering the welfare of a child in association with Father Edward Avery, but not guilty of endangering in association with Father James Brennan, and not guilty of conspiracy to endanger children; 6/27—(:18), A $17-million deficit in the Archdiocese of Philadelphia is forcing the permanent closure of nine parishes; 6/29—(:27), Archbishop Charles Chaput receives a pallium from Pope Benedict XVI.

WOMEN – Topics in this category include reports on a forum at the White House focusing on challenges facing women and the way federal agencies pay attention to the way their policies impact women and families.

Eyewitness News: 4/6—(:19), President Obama is hosting a White House forum on women and the economy today, the mission of this council is to provide a coordinated federal response to the challenges facing women, and ensure federal agencies pay attention to the way their policies impact women and families; 5/3—(:29), A new study released by Measure of America found that Washington, DC is the best city for women to live in, Philadelphia came in at number 10.

YOUTH – Topics in this category include reports on several New Jersey school districts putting new limits on student-teacher relationships and a Delaware teacher has been arrested for hitting a special needs student.

Eyewitness News: 4/3—(:13), A West Philadelphia man who served time in prison has a new lease on life, he recently won a Knight Foundation award for his work inspiring young people; 4/7—(:12), A 4-year old boy accidentally shoots himself in the chest in a Northeast Philadelphia home, police say the loaded gun was in his mother's bedroom; 4/24—(:27), The Philadelphia School District is set to make an announcement that could close up to 40 schools, the district is facing a projected shortfall of $218 million dollars next year; 4/30—(:24), Several New Jersey schools are putting new limits on student-teacher relationships, some districts are banning teachers and coaches from adding students as friends on Facebook and they're also not allowed to give students gifts or offer them rides in their cars; 5/1—(:27), A student with autism at Horace Mann Elementary in New Jersey was mistreated by his teacher and it was all caught in an audio recording; 5/9—(:25) An outpouring of support continues for Kevin McGuire, a South Jersey teenager battling Leukemia, well known for asking Taylor Swift to prom, he is finishing chemotherapy and will have a bone marrow transplant next month; 5/10—(:21), Alumnus Bill Cosby spoke at Temple's graduation ceremony at the Liacourus Center, this is the largest graduating class in Temple's history; 5/11—(:08) Some New Jersey parents are upset about a standardized test question asking third graders to reveal a secret; 6/6—(:15), A Collingswood high school senior says she is taking a stand by arguing her right to stay seated during the pledge of allegiance; 6/11—(:25), Neshaminy teachers are going back to work after walking the picket line for six days; 6/21—(:23), a Delaware teacher has been arrested for hitting a special needs student.